He is 17 y/o with no medical problems. He will require a MED for a single charge that was thrown out of court. He and his family attend church with the Army recruiter for Bush HS. The Army recruiter started speaking to Timothy about going into the Army. Parents wanted him to talk to the Air Force before making a decision. Timothy wants a combat job. Parents want Timothy to pursue college while in the military. They are not prepared to give consent for either service at this time. I explained that I would be leaving for the academy but would be keeping in contact till they were ready...
